ADVENT OF SPRING

If winter comes, can spring be far behind? Percy Bysshe Shelley, one of the leading English poets of Romantic Revival penned down this verse about two hundred years ago. The optimistic vibes the verse emotes stirred the mind of those who adores poetry in his time. The line, however, is a catch phrase still now.

Well, we are not going to unveil the mind of the English Romantic poet, nor we attempt to dig up the essence of English Literature. We just intend to say a hello to the forthcoming season, spring.

Spring is defined to be the month of blossoms. Spring motivates the poetic mind to beget verses. Spring allows the youth to fall in love. Spring even nourishes the germs of chicken pox in the air. But we won't blame spring for spreading chicken pox. We rather adore spring for its love generating essence.

Love is something that has been significantly disappearing from our individual and social lives. Economic growth, booming information technology, make us tech savvy creature. We prefer to hang out with our gadgets, like laptop, ipod, or cell phone. After a hectic schedule through out the day we indulge ourselves in surfing the net instead of sharing a sweet smile with our beloved.

Our kids too are busy enough playing with their favourite electronic toys, or simply getting stuck in front of TV screen showcasing their favourite animation films. They even forget to say a sweet hello to their 'exhausted papa' while papa likewise seems not to be expecting that from his innocent kids. Mom is over telephone then planning her next weekend shopping with someone we never know.

Where is spring in our lives? It seems to be an inert winter with no blossoms, and no fragrance.

Spring comes along with its own colour, odour, and warmth. If we glance at around we behold the shades it spreads in the nature. We smell its fragrance in those blossoms it generates. We feel its affection and warmth enormously in the air. What if we invite spring this time to our lives? Won't we all expect such a life as full of shades, fragrance, and warmth?

Let us while surfing the net send spring an email or at least a piece of text message saying 'hello spring, please stay with us, remove the ugly winter from our life'.

Body

As soon as you die, your identity becomes a "Body". People use phrases like: "Bring the Body", "Lower the Body in the Grave", "Take the Body to the Graveyard", etc. People Don't Even call you by your Name whom you tried to impress whole life...Live a life to Impress the Creator not the Creation.

Take chances...Spend money on the things you love...Laugh till your stomach hurts.. Dance Even if you are too bad at it..Pose stupidly for photos..Be child like...

Moral: Death is not the greatest loss in life... Loss is when life dies inside you while you are alive... Celebrate this event called LIFE.
